NEVADA SOIL.

Its Possibilities Under Favorable Conditions for the Production of All Kinds of Cereals.

[Sutro Independent.]

A visit to any one of the ranches along the Carson manifests the fact that our valley soil, properly irrigated and cared for, is the most productive on the coast. The Italian ranch, southeast of town, and adjoining the Sutro ranch, is a garden of beauty that would make glad the eyes of some of our Comstock friends. Fruit trees are laden with luscious fruit, the meadows are still green and will soon be ready again for the mow, and everything about it partakes of industry and economy. From this ranch, which covers about 100 acres, 250 tons of potatoes will soon have been gathered, to say nothing of the fifty of tons of other products that are almost in their state of maturity.

The Italian ranch below Cooney's is conducted on a still larger scale. It is believed that from this ranch there will yet be gathered this fall 325 tons of potatoes, 150 tons of carrots, 100 tons of turnips, 50 tons of onions, and several tons of other vegetables of minor importance and use. Watermelons of wondrous size and flavor are raised there; also, beans, peas, corn, pumpkins, and the like. This ranch covers almost 200 acres, and is kept throughout the growing season, in an almost perfect state.

On the Sutro ranch, the third crop of alfalfa will be ready for mowing by the 15th inst., it being at the present time two feet four inches high, and will yield at this cutting two tons and a fraction to the acre.

In this connection, we quote from the Elko Independent the following: "The chemical elements of the soils of Nevada render them the most fertile natural earths on the American continent. The most desolate, forbidding valley in the State can be transformed into terrestrial paradises by the simple processes of irrigation, and almost every species of vegetable, cereal and fruit peculiar to the North Temperate Zone, can be reared in the greatest profusion and of superior excellence. At the last session of the Nevada Legislature a joint resolution was introduced in the Senate memorializing Congress to make liberal donations of arid lands to parties who should make a success in bringing to surface of arid lands a bountiful supply of artesian water. The resolution passed the Senate, but, unfortunately, was defeated in the House.

Anything which tends to inaugurate a general system of irrigation in this country should be promptly encouraged, and we urge upon the members of the next Legislature the importance of renewing the attempt to secure Government aid in this laudable enterprise. There are substantial geological and topographical indications in the interior of Nevada to warrant the belief that flowing artesian wells may be readily obtained and if this desired result can be accomplished, millions of acres of the richest arable land on the continent can speedily be added to the wealth of the Union.

SYSTEMATIC MINING.

A good system of drifts for ventilation is about being commenced at the north end of the Comstock, starting in the Ophir on the 2000 level, from that point a drift will be started from the bottom of the joint winze on the California line and run directly to the C. & O. shaft. The northeast lateral drift on the 2000 level of the Ophir, already in some distance, will be extended to the new development in the Sierra Nevada and Union Consolidated, and will also be connected with the North Consolidated Virginia shaft, thus making a continuous line of drifts between these points at the north and the C. & O. shaft at the south. This main line of drifts will also be connected with drifts running through to the Gould & Curry, and thence through the Savage and Hale & Norcross. Eventually the C. & O. shaft and the new shaft soon to be sunk by the Best & Belcher and Gould & Curry Companies will be connected, and finally the latter will be connected with the Combination shaft. The drifts will probably also be utilized for drainage, as they would carry the water to a point where it may be pumped up into the Sutro tunnel. —Enterprise.

Says the Cheyenne Leader: Our exchanges will confer a favor by giving currency to the fact that those who are known to be professional tramps are horse-whipped in Cheyenne. They must keep away from this section of the country, and our officials are determined to make it lively for them hereafter.

STATE SENATORS AND ASSEMBLYMEN.

[From the Ward Reflex.]

It may not be out of place at this time to suggest the kind of Legislative material that should compose the next Legislature of Nevada. Men who will bring the railroads to time and put a quietus on discriminations regarding fares and freights; men who will secure the passage of a law calculated to knock the stuffing out of one-sided contracts made between the passenger and the railroad company, purporting to be "good for this day only," men who will put forth their best efforts to secure the passage of a law to the effect that when a man, woman or child pay their money for transportation over any road to a certain point, and so long as they remain in possession of evidence of such contract, they have a perfect right to go so far as designated on the ticket they hold; are the kind of men we want for legislators at this time. How long will the people of this State humbly submit to the outrages they have been subjected to? Outrage is no name for it. Outrage but feebly expresses the idea we wish to convey! Are railroad companies to take one's money—the price demanded for carrying a passenger a certain distance—and be granted the privilege of putting him or her off at pleasure? As well had a railroad contract to take a certain amount of freight to a certain point and undertake to enforce a like arbitrary rule. They respect freight but are no respecters of persons. The latter they will deliver according to contract; why should not the pirates be compelled to do the same as regards passengers? Why should this company, whose road has been built at public expense, be allowed to charge more for carrying passengers fifty miles than one hundred? Nevada has sent quite enough purchasable material to Carson, and it is quite time the disgrace was wiped out. Nominating conventions should not overlook this important plank in their platforms, and candidates appearing before these bodies should be required to pledge themselves to its support unequivocally, then in case they play the people false they will in future be elected to stay at home.

THE FENALL HERMIT.

Her Visit to the Town of Sutro—The Story of Her Strange Life as Told by Herself—What She Looks Like—Etc.

Old Mother Dildine, the female hermit who lives in the mountains about fifteen miles northwest of town, says the Sutro Independent, made her semi-annual visit to Sutro on last Wednesday to sell a few eggs and lay in a scanty supply of groceries and other provisions. In conversation she seemed quite self-possessed and intelligent. She says she will be sixty years old next October; that she has lived alone in the mountains now for twelve years, and that she is perfectly happy in living secluded from the outside world. Her only support is that which she derives from 200 Angora goats and eight hens. She says she is seldom visited by the whites, and prefers never to see one about her premises, for in nearly every instance they tease her about her mode of living, and after their departure she worries over their conduct towards her. She likes the Plutes, and even seeks their companionship. They have never yet seen her in need but that they would shoot some rabbits or kill a few birds for her relief, and in cold weather have even shared the warmth of their blankets with her. In fact this singular woman is about five feet six inches, and in actions sprightly. Her dark auburn hair lies in wavelets about her forehead, and hangs about her head in long curls. Her dress is neat and in no way conforms with that she is reported to wear in the mountains. She is a native of Massachusetts, has two brothers living in Westport in that State, and a sister living in Lowell. Her living a recluse was brought about by troubles in her married life years ago.

NEWS OF THE MORNING.
Ships arriving at Italian ports from any part of the United States have been ordered placed in quarantine.
The deaths from yellow fever Monday were greater than those of any other day since the plague began.
The most heart-rending news comes from the afflicted cities, and calls for more help are made.
By the present showing of the Maine election Hale must be defeated. The Senate appears to stand—20 Republicans to 11 Greenback and Greenback Democrats. The House shows a large Republican loss.
The Democrats of Boston held a caucus Monday evening for the election of delegates to the State Convention.
In nearly every ward Butler delegates were chosen. The general complexion of the entire Boston delegation is said to be decidedly in favor of Butler.
General Howard has held a conference with Chief Moses at Priest's Rapids, at which assurances of continued friendship were exchanged, and Moses announced the willingness of his tribe to go on a reservation of their own choosing, but not on one remote from their country.

Sheriff Kerber, of El Paso, reports to the Adjutant-General that his deputy arrested, on the 28th ultimo, Antonio Alizares, a fugitive from the Penitentiary, also under indictment for the murder of Judge Howard and others, and put him in the San Elizario jail. The same night Mexicans from Mexico crossed the river and rescued the prisoner.

DAGGETT'S CARD.
In the Enterprise of the 10th we find the following card from R. M.
Daggett which explains itself:
I shall place no tickets in the Republican primary elections in Storey County to-morrow as a candidate for Governor.

Contests for nominations within the Republican party should be made legitimately or not at all, nor will I resort or submit to any other.
An overwhelming combination of the powers that be, or that assume to be—and I believe it includes the most of them of consequence—has rendered a contest by me in Storey County a ghastly mockery, as a fair expression of the will of the party has been placed beyond my reach.
I have done the Republican party some service, and have made for it some willing sacrifices; and I humbly pled both in extenuation of a disqualification at this time to bind myself in closer relations with the party by accepting slaughter in its name, even in a single county; nor am I willing that the strange results which would inevitably follow the primary elections in Storey County to-morrow, were I to permit myself to take part in them, should be accepted as a full, free and fair expression of the will of the Republican party.
I shall not, therefore, present my name as a candidate at the primary elections in Storey County to-morrow, but shall leave the delegation to such easy procurement as this determination may involve.
R. M. DAGGETT.
Virginia, September 10, 1878.

TYRRELL WITHDRAWS.
The following dispatch tells its own story: SAUCRETT, Cal. Sept. 9, 1878.
HON. C. C. STEVENSON—Dear Sir: Owing to continued ill health and by advice of physicians I feel compelled to withdraw from the gubernatorial contest of Nevada.
Respectfully yours,
A. J. TYRRELL.

TOM LAWTON, next to Kearney, is the best advertised man in America.
He is ubiquitous, and just as soon as told in one place, he is heard from in another. He is a man of many fates. Once he committed suicide, once, at least, was he killed in an attempt to capture him. The day after his death he was captured in Nevada, and was sent in safe keeping to Sacramento by "steamer." The day following he was seen near Battle Mountain, in Nevada, on his way to Montana, and the very latest account states that a posse of abriders and constable were on his track and that he would be captured somewhere in the eastern part of Nevada.

THE poor, overworked lawyers are said to have received only $100,546 from the Jay Cooke estate. Considering their immense and successful labors, in saving off the creditors of the estate, the pay is exceedingly meager, and will excite public sympathy.

EX-DOORKEEPER FITZGUTH, the "bigger man than old Grant," will re-open Willard's Hotel Washington, as a resort for Southern people.

MAKE GOOD NOMINATIONS.
The Virginia Footlight says the necessity of nominating good men for the various offices to be filled at the ensuing election ought to be apparent to every well-wisher of our State. Perhaps never before in the history of Nevada has this necessity been greater. In order to insure success at the polls it will not be sufficient to say that this man is a Democrat, or that man is a Republican. The people are tired of electing men to office simply because of party names and party proclivities, or because the nominees are put forward and endorsed by a little clique of mutual admirationists. Voters demand that the candidates shall have, and deserve, the respect and confidence of the people. An unbiased man cannot mistake the feeling which prevails the community on this matter. Party ties never set tighter upon this people, than they do today. The politics of no man will be sufficient to insure his election. He must be a better man than his opponent, or he will have to go to the wall. There are hundreds of voters in Nevada who are not in close sympathy with either political organization, who will vote for the best man placed before them regardless of party names. Let the nominating conventions then see that their parties are represented by their best men, men whom the people know to be honest, and capable of performing the duties of the office to which they aspire, with credit to themselves and to the party which places them in nomination. Let the voters remember that it is as much their duty to insist that the party nominees shall be worthy of their support, as is to support the ticket when placed before them.

STOREY FOR BATTARMAN.
The Storey Republican County Convention met yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the office of Jonas Seeley, C. C. Stevenson presiding.
R. M. Daggett appeared before the Convention and announced his withdrawal from the canvass. He said that he should make no effort in his own behalf at the Republican primaries, and that any opposition to General Battarman, should there be any, he would have nothing to do with.
On motion of Jonas Seeley, it was decided by an unanimous vote not to hold the primary election.
It was decided to send to the State Convention 37 delegates, instructed to vote first, last and all the time for C. C. Battarman as candidate for Governor.

A Chicago Tribune Washington special says: The Democrats of the Potter Committee have certainly had some document offered which purports to be the original Sherman letter. Probably the committee has not control of it, but the parties who have it insist upon the payment of money. Secretary Sherman's denial of the authenticity of the letter and his threats to prosecute any one having it in his possession make it questionable whether the Potter Committee will venture to use it.

According to the San Jose Mercury, the first woman admitted to the practice of law in California, received her documents from the District Court, at that city, a few days ago. Her name is Mrs. Foltz, and she is the mother of five little Foltzes. The bill granting the right to women to practice law was one of the last passed by the Legislature last Winter, and since its passage Mrs. Foltz has made good use of her time.

A PETITION is to be presented to the Alabama Legislature, praying for the reinstatement of the whipping post in that State. The argument in favor of the movement is that as punishment for petty offenses the lash is cheaper, more effective and more speedy than anything else. It doesn't cost as much as imprisonment, and saves the city or county the board and guard of the offenders.

Boca beer is gaining a world wide celebrity. The Truckee Republican says: "Boca beer is now being shipped to Australia, Peru, the Sandwich Islands and Germany. One shipment of beer, amounting to eight thousand dollars, was recently made in Lima, Peru. A shipment made to Germany via Cape Horn was six months in reaching its destination.
The beer on its arrival proved to be excellent. The demand is rapidly increasing."

MR. GLADSTONE predicts that the census of 1880 will show the American Republic to be the wealthiest of nations. Yet, according to the Greenback Labor agitators, all but a favored few are starving.

MR. STEPHENS will slip into Congress anyhow, thinks the Pittsburg Telegraph, unless the Capitol is surrounded by a mosquito bar.

Hop growers at Puget Sound can not rely on getting help from Western Washington this year. The Indians belonging east of the Cascades are not going to be largely represented at the hop yards of Fuyallup this season.

Stock for the Nevada State Fair.
(From Special Reporter of the Record-Union.) Reno, September 5th.
The early riser may witness a very animated scene by a 6 o'clock visit to the race track any of these fine mornings. Horses are coming in daily to be run in training for the fair, and runners and trotters, brown, sorrel and gray, may be seen hard at work every day.
Mr. Webster, the well-known horse-raiser from Pitt River country, arrived yesterday and reports a number coming from Modoc county and Oregon. He has a fast trotter, with no record, who will go in 2:50 race. He is a handsome light bay, 3 years old. His sire is Jack Nelson, a grandson of imported Trustee, the sire of Peytona, Boston and Fashion, all noted for endurance as well as speed. Nelson is half brother to Controller. A brother of Pest, an unbroken colt, occupies the next slot. Nine head came here from Susanville yesterday—mostly green horses. They will enter the races if they show up as well as expected.
Plumas county is represented by Mr. Winn, with four horses. Little Sam, a bright bay, goes under three minutes; he is a Blackhawk. Dan Bidwell, by Blackhawk and a Morgan mare, is entered in the 2:50 race. Ashley is a dark brown of fine shape. A gray mare, sired by Gray Eagle, dam a Canadian pacing mare, is thought to be, paradoxically speaking, a dark horse. Gibson's Modoc Jim is a beautifully built two year old; he will go for the colt purse.
Old Tom Morgan is looking well.
Your reporter witnessed an affecting meeting last week between him and his old Denver trainer and driver.
The strongest affection seems to have existed between the two, and many a hard day they put in together. Old Tom deserves a biography; his career has been a checkered one; his unsmooth and awkward appearance entirely belies his powers of speed, and he has been rushed about the country, hunting up places where he was not known, until he is as familiar to the better of a dozen States as any horse could be. He was born, I think, on Long Island, and at five years old was thought to be a world beater; but he has not come up to the expectation of his early friends, and now barely goes under 2:40.
Two Blackbird colts come next in the 2-year-old race. W. R. Chamberlain's 3-year old is a beauty. Sheriff Lamb's stallion—Washoe—will trot in the 2:50 and 2:40 races. Ed.
Talbott has three Blackbird colts.
M. O. Lake has a good stable with Consin Vic in the foreground. This stallion is a grandson of Lexington; on the mother's side his pedigree extends back sixteen generations.
Muggins won a hard race at the last fair, after losing the first two heats Nellie Blair, out of Rifleman, will run in the 2-year-old race. Minnie Woodburn, a handsome bay, will go for the 3 year old purse. The track is said by the trainers to be in good condition.

THE following curious law was enacted during the reign of Richard I. for the government of his followers during the crusade to the Holy Land.
"He who kills a man on shipboard shall be bound to the dead body and cast into the sea; if any man is killed on shore, the slayer shall be bound to the dead body and buried with it; he who shall draw his knife to strike another, or shall have drawn blood from him, to lose his hand; if he shall have only struck with the pumice of his hand without drawing blood he shall be three days in the sea."

JOHN SWINTON'S ADVICE TO THE WORKINGMEN.
In a letter announcing his inability to attend the recent labor demonstration at Indianapolis, Ind., Mr. John Swinton said:
Let the workingmen announce their power and display their energy.
Let them proclaim their purposes and make ready to execute it.
Let them turn to each other, grasp hands, pass the word of welcome, take counsel upon the means of action organize the way to success, and set agoing the principles by which the general welfare may speedily be won.
The workingmen do not need to petition for justice; they can establish it. They do not need to ask for fair play; they can enforce it. They do not need to demand their rights; they can take them. Every day lost by them is a day of dishonor to them.
Let us deal with practical wrongs and evils in a practical way. Let us use our power, which is all sufficient for the work.
The workingman suffers from no wrong that the workingmen cannot put an end to. He is shackled by no law that they cannot abolish; he is subject to no power that they cannot sweep away.
If plunderers seize the fruits of our labor, let us break their grip.
If they clutch the soil that belongs to us, let us resolutely recover it.
If they pounce upon the mines of coal and iron, of gold and silver, that are the natural heritage of the whole people, let us make prompt reclamation.
If they wrest from us the engine-ry of our industry let us retrieve it.
If they make us the tools of their greed, let us curb them.
If they lay violent hands upon any franchise of our manhood or citizenship, let us assert our inalienable rights.
It is high time for the workingmen of the United States to rescue themselves, by their own brains and brawn from the accursed system that is crushing them into slavery and misery.
Blast the vampires of capital, who drain the life-blood of their victims.
Blast the greedy monopolists and corporations who devour the substance of the poor upon whom they prey.
Blast the land grabbers, whose breath blasts the earth; the gambling law makers, who blast the public prosperity; the false priests, who blast justice in the interest of the rich; and whoever or whatsoever blasts the life and liberty of man, let him and it be blasted!

And now, comrades of Indianapolis!
May the true men, the wise men, the strong men, who appear among you next Sunday, utter words that shall sound over the land and in the hearts of the people.

PACIFIC COAST ITEMS.
The Fresno Expositor of September 4th has the following account of a distracting accident: Yesterday morning Washington Armstrong, who resides on the hill near the head of Big Dry creek, met with a severe and dangerous accident. He had taken his wagon, a large four-horse one, to Henry's blacksmith shop for repairs. The wheels were taken off and the body braced up. Mr. Armstrong was under the body tightening up some of the bolts when the bracing gave way and the wagon fell on him, crushing and breaking his back. As soon as possible the wagon was removed, and Mr. Armstrong picked up and carried to the Morton House, and a surgeon summoned.
Mr. Armstrong is quite an old gentleman, and is a highly esteemed citizen.

THE MARIO JOURNAL SAYS: This has been a good year for San Rafael, and all this peninsula. Our population has increased, and the new-comers have been people who add to the stock of intellect and wealth of the community. At a moderate estimate, $300,000 worth of real estate has changed hands in our little community of 2,000 people since the opening of this year. Probably three to four fifths of this has come in from abroad, and is so much new capital.
A number of excellent mansions have been built, and a still larger number of moderate but tasteful residences have gone up. We have had for the first time two elegant boats plying daily, giving us eight round trips to the city, and a vastly larger percentage of travel than in any preceding year. A brick block is just started in the business portion of the town, which is to be higher than any other in the county. With this for the record of the year we may certainly say it has been a good one.

THE EUREKA (NEV.) LEADER SAYS:
H. R. Symonds, who has been prospecting for the past year near Jet District, passed through town yesterday en route to San Francisco. The gentleman had with him about a dozen crystals, which he is firm in the belief are diamonds of the first water. About six months since he discovered a small specimen, which he forwarded to San Francisco. It was pronounced by judges in that city as a genuine diamond, and sent to New York, where it was cut and sold. Its size, after this operation, was about two carats, and Mr. Symonds received $180 for it. Since that time he has searched and prospected the locality pretty thoroughly, with the result stated above. The largest stone in his possession was about 20 carats in the rough, octohedral in shape, with rounded corners and a dull surface. The remainder are small but perfect crystals. Mr.
Symonds, while showing his prizes freely, was very reticent in regard to the exact place where he found them, and proposes, if the stones turn out to be gems, to ransack the benefit of the discovery. He will have them examined in San Francisco, and if his anticipations as to their value are confirmed, will return to the field and prosecute a search for more.

EX-CONGRESSMAN GEO. W. JULIAN, of Indiana, says: Land monopoly, indeed, is slavery. A government which allows the land to become the patrimony of the few cannot be free, for the simple reason that the landholders of every country are its masters. The most stupendous system of organized robbery which scourges the world is that which strips the poor of their natural inheritance to the soil.

ASSESSMENT NOTICE.
WASHOE LAND AND WATER CO.
Principal place of business, Reno, Nev.
Notice is hereby given that at a meeting of the Board of Trustees held on the 5th day of September, 1878, an assessment of $1.00 of one cent the corporation, payable immediately in U. S. gold coin to the Secretary.

Any stock upon which this assessment shall remain unpaid October 9th, 1878, shall be declared delinquent and advertised for sale at public auction, and unless payment is made before, will

SEYMOUR ON CHEESE AND FLAN-
NANCE.
(From the Oswego Palladium, August 24.) Governor Seymour was in Cooper-town Wednesday, on his way to the Cherry Valley celebration. He was called upon by citizens, and in conversation upon political topics, among other important things, said:
"It is true the country has been passing through an experience of hard times, but I have yet to meet a man who has been wrecked or severely tried and embarrassed who does not date the commencement of his misfortunes to the 'good times' of inflation, and the cause thereof to the unwise public measures which hail their origin in those times." Again,
"The communists are not the most attractive characters, but I think there is more to fear, for the next few years from the law makers than from the law breakers of this country." Of banks and bankers he remarked, "There was a time in the history of the country when the banking interest exerted a leading influence in public matters, but that is a thing of the past. Other interests have outgrown that, and the bankers no longer shape public opinion even on financial questions. It is mainly their own fault. You know the cheese interest is particularly my hobby, and that today leads the banking interests. There is more money invested in ploughs and hoes than in banks. The people have no cause to feel alarmed at their influence."

Mr. Alvey's residence, five miles south of Tacoma, Washington Territory, was destroyed by fire a few days ago, supposed to have been set by an Indian. The family was absent and everything in the house was consumed.
The schooner Liholihi, built by Hall Brothers, Fort Ludlow, Washington Territory, for parties in the Sandwich Islands, was launched last week, making the twenty-second vessel built at that port by the same firm.

WASHOE LAND AND WATER CO.

NANCE.
(From the Oswego Palladium, August 24.)
Governor Seymour was in Cooper-
town Wednesday, on his way to the
versation upon political topics,
among other important things, said:
"It is true the country has been
man who has been wrecked or se-
their origin in those times." Again,
attractive characters, but I think
marked, "There was a time in the
hobby, and that today leads the
